

Music Department

Faculty

Brian Moon, Classical and Jazz Trumpet

Applied Trumpet

B.M., Curtis Institute of Music

Graduated from the world renowned Curtis Institute of Music. He served as principal trumpet of the Teatro Communale in Florence, Italy under Riccardo Muti. Mr. Moon is currently principal trumpet with the Livonia Symphony Orchestra. He has performed with the Detroit and Boston Symphonies, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Michigan Opera Theatre. Mr. Moon has also played natural trumpet with Ars Musica, the baroque orchestra. In addition to being the trumpet instructor at Madonna University he also teaches trumpet for the Cranbrook Educational Community. Equally at home in all musical idioms, Brian has performed with such diverse groups as the O'Jays, La Contraria Orchestra, to the Stan Kenton Orchestra. His former students currently perform with the Detroit Symphony, national recording studios, and all around the world.