MSBA Leadership Studies in Criminal Justice • School of Business

About the Program

Overview

The Master of Science in Business Administration with a specialty in leadership studies in criminal justice offers a planned program of educational experiences for the graduate interested in advancing in a key leadership role in criminal justice.

The program emphasizes professional and managerial leadership and the development of human resources within the framework of social and environmental constraints which ultimately affect human behavior and performance in the work setting. The content of the program is designed to provide the student with the following competencies:

- Demonstrate specialized knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary for professional and effective performance as a leader in a managerial role in criminal justice.
- Interpret the role of human behavior in the criminal justice organizational environment.
- Integrate professional ethics and social responsibility.
- Apply problem solving for effective decision making.
- Recognize societal and environmental issues and analyze their collective impact on human behavior, especially on the manager.
- Apply theory and skills needed to perform useful research within a professional environment.
- Demonstrate a greater sense of personal discipline to pursue lifelong learning for professional growth.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the MSBA program with a specialty in Leadership Studies in Criminal Justice is determined on the basis of the following criteria:

1. Possession of a bachelor degree from an accredited institution with an under-graduate grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. (An average of less than 3.0 will be reviewed for conditional admission).
2. Two letters of recommendation from current employer or professional persons familiar with the applicant's work or college experience.
3. Full-time employment or substantiated prior full-time work experience in the criminal justice field is recommended. In the absence of this, a bachelor degree specifically in the field of criminal justice, from an accredited institution, is required.
4. Current résumé.
5. Admission interview with a School of Business faculty advisor.
6. Interview with the Criminal Justice Department Chairperson.
