

RE-ENTRY AFTER VISITING ABROAD

Before leaving for a trip outside the U.S., you need to ask the International Student Advisor to endorse your I-20 to prove that you have been in good standing in maintaining your F-1 status. A valid entry visa and a student status document (form I-20) are required for re-entry into the states from all countries except from Canada, Mexico, or the Caribbean. Check your travel documents with the International Student Advisor one month before you leave the U.S., and obtain any necessary additional forms at that time.
