

Admission Requirements

Master of Arts in Teaching: Literacy Education

Applications are evaluated based on the following:

- Possession of a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution with an undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. An average of less than 3.0 will be considered for conditional admission.
- Two letters of recommendation from current employer or professional associates familiar with the applicant's work or college performance.
- Valid Michigan teaching certificate.
- Prior or concurrent teaching experience.
- Admission interview with the coordinator of the Literacy Education Program.

Students may transfer up to six semester hours of credit with departmental approval. Students may take up to six semester hours prior to admission.