

Career Opportunities

Master of Business Administration

Career possibilities include:

General business, cost management, criminal justice leadership, e-Commerce, human resource management, international business (financial management and business management), marketing management, project management, quality, and nonprofit management. Career opportunities abound for the master of business administration graduate in today's business world.
