The School of Business at Madonna University, Livonia, Michigan (located between Detroit and Ann Arbor, Michigan) invites applications for adjunct positions as Adjunct Instructor or Adjunct Assistant Professor (rank commensurate with experience) to teach courses in the undergraduate and graduate business programs in specialized areas. The School of Business has been offering business education for over 40 years and is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).

The mission of the School of Business at Madonna University is to promote academic excellence in undergraduate and graduate education. As a community of scholars, faculty and students study the foundational principles of business. We prepare students to become knowledgeable, ethical, professional, and articulate global workers and citizens. The academic programs offered through the School of Business challenge students, add a solid body of knowledge, understanding, and experience in various aspects of business, and are taught in view of the global business environment.

Qualifications:

1. Master's in Business or related field required. Doctorate preferred.
2. At least 18 semester hours or more of academic coursework in the specialized area.
3. At least 12 semester hours of teaching experience at the college-level within the last 4 years.
4. Minimum of 5 years professional experience in the related area of specialization required.
5. Ability and availability to teach day, evening and online courses.
6. Demonstrated scholarship through presentations, publications, or practice activities is a plus.

Adjunct positions are filled on a semester-by-semester, as-needed basis. Review of applications will begin immediately.
