EKG Workshop and RN Refresher Course Bolster Nursing Skills

Students earn nursing contact hours for both courses

In November, Madonna University will offer two separate training opportunities for registered nurses, the RN refresher Course and the EKG workshop. Both courses are designed to help registered nurses stay current or get up-to-date on the latest practices in the medical field. Please see below for detailed information.

EKG Workshop

What: A two day workshop designed to provide the basics of EKG Interpretation and Dysrhythmia recognition. This course provides a review and update of skills which will be beneficial for registered nurses working with cardiac monitoring. Nurses preparing to take an ACLS certification course also will benefit from the class. Upon completion, students earn 12 Nursing Contact Hours.

To register, go to www.madonna.edu. Select Continuing Education on the bottom right hand corner of home page and click on Nursing & Health Courses. For more information or help with registration, please contact Martha Donagrandi 734-432-5469.

Cost: $120

When: Friday, Nov. 5 and Friday, November 12 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Where: Madonna University
DiPonio Building (Room D-118)
36200 Schoolcraft Road
Livonia, MI 48150

RN Refresher Course

What: A 12-day class designed to help licensed RNs who have been away from clinical practice get back up to speed on the newest advances in nursing, in preparation to re-enter the job market. Upon completion, students earn 70 Nursing Contact Hours.

The course covers general concepts of care, assessment and pharmacotherapy along with clinical practice guidelines, management of emergency conditions and discharge planning. The program also provides healthcare provider BLS renewal, one-on-one résumé review with faculty, and lunch-time presentations by local hospital recruiters.

Before registering for this course, please contact Martha Donagrandi at 734-432-5469 or mdonagrandi@madonna.edu. To register, go to www.madonna.edu. Select Continuing Education on the bottom right hand corner of home page and click on Nursing & Health Courses.

Cost: $750.
