Madonna Students/Staff Celebrate MLK Day by Volunteering Jan 18

What: Approximately 90 Madonna University students and staff members (the largest group yet) will volunteer their time and talents at community organizations throughout metro-Detroit next Monday, Jan. 18, in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. This marks the fourth consecutive year that Madonna University has partnered with the University of Michigan Dearborn, United Way for Southeastern Michigan, Lawrence Tech University and Henry Ford Community College for this day of service. United Way staff recruited the agencies where students will serve, and assisted Volunteer Solutions in creating and maintaining the extensive online volunteer database.

Monday morning, Madonna student volunteers can be found working with the following community groups: Beyond Basics, Bridging Communities, Child Help, Fish and Loaves, Gleaners Community Food Bank (Detroit and Warren), Habitat for Humanity, Ruth Ellis, Salvation Army (several locations), Stanford House, Van Dyke Schools (McKinley and Kennedy Elementary Schools).

When: Monday, Jan. 18, 2010
Arrival at U of M Dearborn – 8 a.m.
Service work at assigned locations – 9 a.m.-noon
Return to U of M Dearborn for lunch and ceremony – 1 p.m.

Where: University of Michigan Dearborn
University Center Kochoff Hall
4901 Evergreen Road
Dearborn, MI 48128
