Pro Life Prayer Group

There will be a Pro-Life Prayer group on Thursday, March 24th. Please meet in Prayer Room @ 4:15pm. Afterwards there will be offsite prayer.

MU Spectrum Movie Night

MU Spectrum will be having a movie night on Monday, March 28 from 7:30pm-10:30pm in S100. The movie Prayers for Bobby will be shown and there will be a short discussion about the movie afterwards.
CEO Lecture March 29 Addresses Entrepreneurship

Ramsey Sweis, president of Aqaba Technologies, a web advertising agency in Sterling Heights, is the featured executive at the next CEO/Executive Lecture, Tuesday, March 29 from 6-8 p.m. in the Franciscan Center Lecture Hall. Sweis will share his insights on innovation and entrepreneurship. Frank Notturno, associate professor of marketing and managements said, "These lectures are a great way to bring professionals from the community on campus to interact with our students, in particular, to address topics that are relevant but may not be discussed within the structure of traditional business classes." The lecture is free and open to the public.

Madonna Library is pleased to introduce to you Rhonda Roorda. Rhonda was adopted into a white family and raised with two non-adopted siblings. She is a national speaker on transracial adoption and a recipient of the Judge John P. Steikee Adoption Hero Award from the Adoptive Family Support Network (Mich.).
Student Senate

Launched on Monday, March 14th, the campaign for Student Senate leadership positions is underway. Candidate meet and greets are scheduled for 6-7 p.m. March 21 and 12-1 p.m. March 22, with an additional session for a president and vice-president debate 6-7 p.m. March 22. Voting takes place in MyPortal and elections will take place April 1-8. The 2016-17 Student Senate will be announced on Tuesday, April 12. Student Senate meets every Friday from noon to 2 p.m. in Room 2102.

Campus Ministry

Campus Ministry hosts “Awakening”, Winter Adoration and Praise, a Eucharistic adoration accompanied by Christian praise and worship music. "Awakening" takes place the first Thursday of the month, from 7-8 p.m., in the University Chapel. Upcoming date is April 7.

Spring Career Fair

Our Spring Career Fair is fast approaching. The fair will be held in the Gym on April 7. Currently there are 53 registered employers seeking to hire students and graduating seniors. Scroll down on the Career Services web page to view the list and see our new Career Spots videos. This is a great opportunity for our students to hone their interviewing skills and meet face to face with a wide range of employers.
Madonna University’s Lyric Theatre will perform "The Secret Garden" April 8 and 9 at 7:30 p.m. and April 10 at 3 p.m. The production reimagines Frances Hodgson Burnett’s story set to music. Cast members include Madonna University students and community members; students include Kathryn Linzmaier as Rose Lennox, Aaron von Allmen as Captain Albert Lennox, Brenden Delaney as Lieutenant Shaw, Zander Meehan as the Fakir, Kelly Ryan as Ayah, Brittany Dimmit as Martha, Erin Jobst as Mrs. Shelley/Jane, and Katherine Schmaltz as Mrs. Winthrop/Ensemble. The poster was designed by graphic design student Lauren Levinsky. Tickets are on sale in the Humanities office, $10 for seniors and students, $12 for adults. Contact Barbara Wiltzie for more info at ext. 5715 or bwiltzie@madonna.edu.

The Michigan Intergenerational Network and Madonna Aging Studies are sponsoring a seminar on human trafficking on April 28th from 9 am to noon in Kresge Hall. The event is free, but donations of personal hygiene items are requested for use by a safe house. Pearls of Great Price, a faith based non-profit, will present the program.

Have an item for the Madonna Messenger? Submit to SAccentral@madonna.edu by Fridays at 12 midnight. Information will be included the following week.
