Professor Acknowledged for Humane Work

Andrew Domzalski, Ph.D., was one of seven people from around the nation nominated by the National Council for Animal Protection for the 2016 Belton Mouras Grassroots Leadership Award for his work in humane studies and animal welfare. Not only does Domzalski co-direct Madonna’s Master of Humane Studies program, he also founded and directs the nonprofit Caring for Cats, Inc. Activities eligible for nomination, included: fostering cooperation among animal advocates and organizations, increasing awareness of the plight of specific animals, promoting credible scholarship of animal issues, engaging in rescue efforts on behalf of animals in need, spreading a compelling educational message, effective legal or legislative advocacy on behalf of animals, and affecting responsible corporate policies on behalf of animals.

“Play for Pat” T-shirts for Sale

Madonna’s women’s soccer team is selling “Play for Pat” t-shirts in memory of sports information director Patrick Moore, who died suddenly last November. Funds raised through this effort will go toward the press box to be built in his honor. There are 70 shirts remaining in the following sizes: 40 smalls, 6 large, 21 XL and 3 2XL. Shirts can be purchased from Athletic Director Bryan Rizzo for $10.

Madonna to Host Blood Drive

Madonna University will host a blood drive Tuesday, July 21. Did you know that every two seconds, a person in the United States is in need of blood? With a simple blood donation, YOU can save up to three lives. To schedule an appointment go to the American Red Cross website, and enter the sponsor code MADONNA, email red.cross@my.madonna.edu, or call the Office of Student Life at Ext. 5426.
Donations Needed for Rummage Sale

Madonna University’s annual Rummage Sale will be held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 6-7, with a special Madonna employee preview sale Friday, Aug. 5. Proceeds from the Rummage Sale benefit alternative spring break trips – opportunities for students to serve with the community in the areas of youth development, natural disaster relief, and support of basic needs during their spring break vacation. If you have items to donate (clothing, household items, toys, etc.), please visit www.madonna.edu/rummagesale to complete the donation form and schedule a drop-off date and time. Donations will be accepted beginning Monday, July 11.
