Q: My training instructor/facilitator indicated that my Madonna assignment is "Waived." What does that mean?

A: In some cases, organizations have made arrangements with our department to use their program assignment in lieu of our PDP assignment. In such cases, the organization's assignment has been evaluated and determined to be of sufficient quality to fulfill the requirements of graduate level work. When you receive notice that your Madonna PDP assignment has been waived for your course, you must submit a copy of your program assignment to our department (along with our required cover sheet and hours log) for grading following the same procedures listed above.

Q: When is my assignment due?

A: You will have two university semesters to complete your work. Therefore, you should adhere to the following schedule for work submissions:

Fall Courses	End of Semester: December 1	Submit Paper by: April 1
Winter Courses	End of Semester: April 1	Submit Paper by: August 1
Spring/Summer Courses	End of Semester: August 1	Submit Paper by: December 1

Please note: After two semesters, an F grade will be posted for your course if our office has not received the required coursework. The only exception is if we received a request for an extension at pdp@madonna.edu.

Q: Should I submit each training session's assignment as I complete it?

A: No. Keep all of your assignments together and submit them as one package when you have completed all hours necessary for your course completion requirements.

A: Send all materials to:

A: No. The PDP courses are recorded as pass/fail. They are not part of a planned program of graduate work, and therefore they do not generally receive a letter grade for your transcript.

Please note: If your school district or state requires a letter grade, you must notify our Program Director in writing at PDP@madonna.edu prior to submitting your assignment.

Q: How soon after I submit my assignment will I receive a grade?
