The mission of Madonna University, a Catholic and Franciscan institution of higher learning, is to instill in its students Christian humanistic values, intellectual inquiry, a respect for diversity, and a commitment to serving others through a liberal arts education, integrated with career preparation and based on the truths and principles recognized within a Catholic tradition.

Madonna's mission receives its spirit from these Franciscan Values:

- Respect for the dignity of each person
- Peace and justice
- Reverence for creation
- Education for truth and service

Letter from the President

The primary purpose of this President's Report is to recognize the many benefactors who so generously support Madonna University and our students. Tucked in the center of this magazine is the honor roll of donors for the past two years; 2011-2012 and 2012-2013. These extensive lists also contain photos of many Madonna friends who have attended recent University events.

As we closed out our anniversary year (the next Madonna Now will include photo highlights from all the events), we already had begun to look forward at the next 75 years, with the creation of our strategic plan Leading the Way with 2020 Vision. Most of you reading this magazine will have received a copy, and if you haven't, it can be found on our website at madonna.edu/2020.

Early in 2013, we exuberantly welcomed our new Pontiff, His Holiness Pope Francis, who shares our inspirational values of St. Francis. It is a joy for me to witness, daily, as members of the Madonna community live out our Franciscan values.

As you read about the achievements, and ambitions of Madonna students, faculty, staff and alumni, I hope that you share our pride and enthusiasm. I think you would agree that our growth and success reflect the dedication and diligence of the entire community.

As president, I am blessed to work with so many energetic, passionate and creative people; people who care about our students, our benefactors and one another. I am forever grateful and honored to serve this scholarly community, and I look forward to all that is in store for this great University.

For our Madonna,

Sister Rose Marie Kujawa, CSSF
President

Nursing Excellence Through the Years

In May 2013, the College of Nursing and Health celebrated 50 years of excellence in nursing education. Over the years the College has built a reputation for academic excellence and responsiveness to the needs of the community. From the first six graduates in 1966, to well over 5,000 nursing alumni today, the College of Nursing and Health has prepared students to provide high quality, professional health care to people in the most vulnerable stages of their lives. Initially developed as a professional program for women, the student body has grown to include an increasing number of men. As the region and country becomes more racially and culturally diverse, so too are students enrolled in the nursing curricula. Early clinical experiences were gained at St Mary Hospital and a handful of agencies in the greater Detroit area. Today that experiential learning is obtained through study abroad programs and at numerous clinical sites throughout Michigan and Ohio.

Madonna nursing students have earned local and state recognition for their professional activities that contribute to the quality of life and care for people, families and communities. Madonna University and College leaders continue to adapt and enhance the nursing program to address the needs of students, the community and the ever-changing professional environment. The Nursing faculty is devoted to the education and formation of professional nurses with appreciation for Christian humanistic values in the Franciscan tradition and the program looks forward to the challenges of the future.

The following is a look back at the milestones of the Madonna nursing program through the years.

1960 In response to an increasing national need for professional nurses, and the strong interest in nursing careers, of local high school students, the four-year baccalaureate nursing program was developed through the cooperative efforts of Sr. M. Martina Mastej, Academic Dean, Sr. M. Raynelda Makarewicz, President and Sr. M. Calasantia Pawlik, consultant from St. Mary Hospital.

1962 Geared toward women with no prior nursing experience, the first students were admitted. Sr. Calasantia served as chair of nursing from 1962-1968.

The Year 2012

The 50th Anniversary of Vatican II

by Monica Migliorino Miller, Ph.D.,
Associate Professor of Religious Studies

The year 2012 marked the 50th anniversary of Vatican II—the 21st ecumenical council of the Catholic Church. Called by Pope John XXIII, the council took place from 1962 to 1965 and arguably was the most important religious event of the 20th century.

Pope John summoned the council in order to renew “the spirit of the Gospel in the hearts of people everywhere and to adjust Christian discipline to modern day living.” He spoke of a “new Pentecost” and intended the council to be pastoral in its focus and not a council concerned with doctrinal matters. John XXIII died in 1964 after the council’s first session. He was succeeded by Pope Paul VI, who is credited for seeing the council through to its completion and for implementing the changes called for by the council Fathers.

Vatican II produced sixteen documents that address a number of issues of concern to the Church—documents on Revelation, Social Communication, the Role of Bishops, the Role of Priests, Missionary Activity, Religious Life, Education, Ecumenism, Eastern Churches, and the Church’s relation to non-Catholics. However, the most important documents are those focused on the Liturgy (Sacrosanctum Concilium), Religious Freedom (Dignitatis Humanae), the nature of the Church (Lumen Gentium), and the pastoral mission of the Church (Gaudium et Spes).

The influence of Vatican II on the life, understanding and mission of the Church was enormous. Even 50 years later, the reforms of the council continue to be felt and still are in a stage of development. While Lumen Gentium, known as the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, affirmed the authority of the Magisterium, one of the most important adjustments made in this document was its emphasis on the essential role of the laity. Indeed, if one had to point to a real contribution of the council, it would be the incredible explosion of lay activity due to the council’s call for the laity to bring Christ into the secular world—a call that is peculiarly theirs. Lay people also are called to an equal holiness with priests and bishops.

One of the most controversial documents of the council is the Declaration on Religious Liberty (Dignitatis Humane). While this remarkable document affirmed that the Catholic Faith had a right to enjoy special recognition by civil governments, nonetheless, it emphasized the rights of personal conscience in matters of religion and that genuine faith required a conscience free from coercion. Moreover, governments could not restrict the practice of religion, provided that the “requirements of public order were respected.”

Most people associate Vatican II with the changes made to the Eucharistic Liturgy, namely the transition from the 400 year-old Tridentine Rite to the New Rite or what is called the Novus Ordo. In many ways, changes made to the Catholic liturgy continue to be the most controversial of the Vatican II reforms, namely: Latin was replaced with the vernacular, simplification of the rite, and the priest facing the congregation. Many of the changes were made to facilitate more active participation by those attending Mass and more conscious appreciation for the meaning of worship itself.

Fifty years after Vatican II, the reforms have been successfully put into place and in many ways the council’s work has born great fruit, especially in the collaboration between priests and laity. Today the lay people of the Church take initiative, are actively involved in the life of the Church, ecumenism and dialogue with Protestant churches and other faiths, and the Church is more open and aware of the trends of the modern world and the need to address those trends.

However, over the past 50 years, Vatican II has not been without crisis and difficulty. Some of the council’s decisions, particularly regarding liturgical changes and what many viewed as a departure from previous Church teachings in the Declaration on Religious Liberty, sparked a schismatic movement known as the Society of Saint Pius X. Many of its members do not accept Vatican II as a legitimate council. Some priests, theologians and Catholic educators — promoting what they termed “the spirit of Vatican II” — actively dissented from Catholic teachings. Post-Vatican II the Church also saw a decline in vocations to the priesthood and other religious life. The Church faces some of these same challenges, even as it marks the 50th anniversary of the council.

In the 2,100-year history of the Catholic Church, 50 years is but a short time. Living in the shadow of this council, the Church has barely begun to realize its teachings. Vatican II gave rise to the New Evangelization, and equipped the Church, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to engage the modern world. As we work to evangelize in a world that finds the teachings of Christ difficult, we as Catholics are called to confidently live our faith in love and truth. •

A Pope for Madonna

The 266th pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church, Jorge Mario Bergoglio (pronounced Ber-GOAL-io), chose the name Francis, which instantly endeared him to the Madonna University community. The first member of the Jesuit order to lead the church, he also is the first non-European.

“He was a marvelous choice, that emphasizes the universality of the church,” said Sister Rose Marie Kujawa, Madonna president. “In selecting the name Francis, he has indicated his commitment to promoting the values of St. Francis of Assisi — values that we try to live out, both on and off our campus,” she said. “He not only will lead our global Catholic community, but also serve as a special role model for members of our Franciscan university.

Pope Francis, 76, is a humble man who spoke out for the poor and led an austere life as archbishop of Buenos Aires. Born to Italian immigrant parents, he grew up in the Argentine capital.

Mathew N. Schmalz of the Washington Post wrote this about the new leader of the Roman Catholic Church. “Pope Francis will bring a Jesuit intellectualism into the papacy. After all, he was trained in Germany and taught theology himself. But by choosing the name Francis, he is also affirming the power of humility and simplicity. Pope Francis, the Argentine Jesuit, is not simply attesting to the complementarity of the Ignatian and Franciscan paths. He is pointing to how the mind and heart meet in the love of Jesus Christ.”

Pope Francis most probably will be an environmental pope too, particularly since he made Planet Earth a key focus of his Inaugural Mass homily. “I would like to ask all those who have positions of responsibility in economic, political and social life, and all men and women of goodwill: Let us be protectors of creation, protectors of God’s plan inscribed in nature, protectors of one another and of the environment.”

Rev. Luis Scozzina, director of the Franciscan Centre of Studies and Regional Development at the Pontifical Catholic University of Argentina, told the Inter Press Services, Bergoglio is “the most Franciscan Jesuit we have ever known. [Pope] Francis will put the ecological crisis high up on the agenda.”

Indeed, Madonna’s Sustainability Task Force also will be inspired, and have its efforts validated, by the new Holy Father Pope Francis. •

MOTHER MARY DeSALES LIFETIME GIVING SOCIETY

The Society is named after Mother Mary DeSales Tocki, who as Provincial Superior (1926-1938), was the founding chairperson of Madonna University. She used her experience and learning to plan, initiate and supervise construction of an architecturally beautiful convent for the Felician Sisters. Since 1937 that lovely landmark has become home to hundreds of postulants, novices, and professed sisters.

She took constant care to nurture good religious vocations in a prayerful and positive atmosphere. Dedicated to improving the status of the Congregation, she creatively promoted educational enterprises that prepared sisters for service-oriented careers.

The 320-acre Felician campus is home to the Felician Sisters Central Convent, Montessori School, Ladywood High School, Madonna University, St. Mary Mercy Hospital, Marywood Nursing Center, Angela Hospice, Senior Clergy Village.

Through one-time gifts, a lifetime of giving, or through their estates, the following donors have made cumulative gifts to Madonna University in excess of $25,000.

FOUNDATION BOARD PASSING THE TORCH

At the May 23, 2013 Foundation Board meeting, Harry Cendrowski stepped down as Chairman of the Foundation Board and Joe McGill was appointed as the new chair. Harry was acknowledged for his leadership and support of the Foundation Board and the Leading the Way Campaign, and his years of service as a member of the Board of Trustees from 2006 - 2012. Cendrowski joined the Foundation Board in 2006, and was appointed Chairman in 2010. Cendrowski has been steadfast in his commitment through the years, encouraging the University to take its message to Chicago, where he and his wife Maureen sponsored a Discover Madonna reception for alumni and friends at the University Club in Chicago in November 2010. The Cendrowskis sponsored a similar reception at the Birmingham Country Club, in June 2012. During his term as Foundation Board Chair, Cendrowski helped the University successfully complete Phase II of the Leading the Way Campaign.

Stepping into the role of Foundation Board Chair, Joe McGill brings a plethora of experience, and a real passion for Madonna. An attorney and principal with Foley, Baron & Metzger law firm located in Livonia, McGill serves on Madonna's Trustee Committee for Advancement and Public Relations and is a member of the President's Cabinet of donors. Having completed advanced training in probate and estate planning, McGill has been instrumental in the last few years in setting up planned giving vehicles for Madonna alumni and friends. He and his wife Lauren reside in Harrison Township.

CAMPAIGN | UPDATE

LEADING THE WAY ENTERS PHASE III

The $50 million Leading the Way comprehensive campaign — the largest in Madonna University's history — was launched in 2006 to secure resources to position the University for the future. Two of the campaign's three phases are complete and resulted in a number of key campus projects totaling $32 million.

PHASE I $20 MILLION (COMPLETED 2009)

The Franciscan Center for Science and Media, opened in 2009, offers technologically-advanced science laboratories, a professionally-equipped broadcast and media center, as well as classrooms, a lecture hall, and an inviting gathering space for students and faculty.

PHASE II $12 MILLION (COMPLETED 2012)

The University's Main Academic Building was updated with new classroom furnishings, alumni recognition areas, and expanded areas for the Graduate School, and student support services including the Writing Center, Campus Ministry, and Student Life. New labs for nursing simulation and sign language studies, an office for adult and veteran student services, and a new athletic field for the Crusader athletic teams were completed.

PHASE III $18 MILLION (IN PROGRESS)

Launched in Fall 2012, the final phase of the Leading the Way campaign focuses on securing the resources needed to:

- construct of a Student Welcome Center – $12 million;
- establish Centers of Excellence including a Center for Catholic Studies and Interfaith Dialogue – $4 million;
- strengthen the University's endowment – $2 million; especially scholarships which are life-changing for students.

TOTAL PHASE III GIVING TO-DATE

June 30, 2013 (Cash, In-Kind & Pledges)

$6,783,411

STUDENT WELCOME CENTER

With our sights set on improving opportunities for student success, the proposed 20,000-square-foot Student Welcome Center will locate several related student services under one roof. Plans for the new building, to be constructed between St. Francis Pond and the Student Activities Center, have it housing offices for Admissions, Advising, Financial Aid, Registrar, and Student Accounts. Bringing these essential services together will make it easier for students to move from office to office, ensuring immediate access to needed assistance.

CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE AND PROGRAMS

CENTER FOR CATHOLIC STUDIES AND INTER-FAITH DIALOGUE

An academic initiative true to the Franciscan charism of the Felician Sisters, the Center for Catholic Studies and Inter-Faith Dialogue will provide a forum for theological and philosophical reflection, contributing to global scholarship through the vitalization of faith and reason. The Center also will be home to the University's two newest chairs: the Bishop John M. Quinn Chair for Catholic Studies; and the Sister Mary Francilene Van de Vyver Chair for Human Dignity and Caring.

PLANNED GIVING FOR ENDOWMENT

The most lasting and powerful resources a donor can offer are endowment gifts. They keep growing and giving from one generation to the next, because they provide perpetual income from permanently invested funds. Endowments ensure a steady stream of funding for scholarships and fellowships to support deserving students; professorships to recruit and retain distinguished faculty; lectureships to bring distinguished speakers to campus; library acquisitions; and academic prizes to recognize outstanding students and faculty.

TOTAL CAMPAIGN GIVING

June 30, 2013 (Cash, In-Kind & Pledges)

$36,879,718

74% of the $50 million goal

Total does not include $5.6 million in federal grants received

There are few more personally meaningful ways to change the lives of an entire family than by providing a named endowed scholarship at Madonna University to help a student in need. Named funds can be created from $25,000 to $1 million and more.

To Provide THIS Amount of Scholarship Per Year	Requires an Endowment of:
$1,250	$25,000
$2,500	$50,000
$5,000	$100,000
$10,000	$200,000
$25,000	$500,000
$50,000	$1,000,000

The University's unrestricted endowment generates vital funding for operations and enables the University to respond to important needs as they arise.

The culmination of all three phases of the Leading the Way campaign, will fulfill the goals set forth in Madonna University's campus framework and long range strategic plan.

Three beloved professors leave Madonna to follow God's plan

By Allison Follbaum

2013 graduate with a BA in journalism and public relations

Friendly. Passionate. Faithful. Influential. Funny. Engaging. Excited. Charismatic. Understanding.

These words describe three professors, and Marist priests, in the College of Arts and Humanities who retire in May: Fr. John Sajdak, Fr. Ron DesRosiers, and Fr. Frank Grispingo. All with different teaching and preaching styles; they left their mark in different ways.

"I've always been in education."

Fr. John Sajdak, chairperson of Religious Studies, Pastoral Ministry and Philosophy, said he has seen Madonna evolve over the past 18 years.

"The student body here, especially when I first started, was all adults. There were hardly any traditional-aged students," said Fr. Sajdak.

When Fr. Sajdak started teaching at Madonna in 1987, he said the students simply wanted to finish their degree without taking time for the "college experience." He laughed when he told of how, in the middle of a philosophy lecture about the practice of taking time to think critically about concepts, one gentleman interjected, "Father, I don't have time to think."

After 11 years at Madonna, Fr. Sajdak left to serve as principal of Notre Dame High School in Harper Woods. He returned about seven years later to assume the department chairperson position, vacated by Sr. Ann Stamm.

"I like the challenge of the variety," said Fr. Sajdak. "I'm somebody that needs a lot of variety in my life and every class is different."

Dr. Kathleen O'Dowd, Dean of the College of Arts and Humanities said Fr. Sajdak filled the post as chairperson, admirably.

"He's been something of a pioneer in online teaching at Madonna," said O'Dowd. "He teaches courses to students in Dubai and Haiti as well as in metro Detroit, and has taken steps to make it possible to earn a Pastoral Ministry or Religious Studies degree completely online."

"Fr. Jack has mastered distance learning, making available the teachings of the Catholic faith available through the 'wires,'" said Sr. Rose Marie, Madonna's president.

Ready for something new, Fr. Sajdak will follow God's call to work at a parish in Brooklyn, New York.

"After about forty years here in the Detroit area, I am looking forward to going back to my roots. My family is within an hour's radius of the parish so we will get to see one another more than just once a year, as it has been in the past. I also really enjoy living with the Marists who are presently at the parish. Celebrating Mass with the parish community is refreshing and renewing for me, because the people are completely involved in the Mass with great singing and a real spirit of prayer," Sajdak said.

48 years teaching, 23 at Madonna

Fr. Ron DesRosiers, professor of Religious Studies and Philosophy, started at Madonna in September of 1990 after teaching at Notre Dame High School in Harper Woods.

"Fr. Sajdak, who was teaching here at Madonna, saw an opening, when the fellow who was supposed to teach philosophy had to withdraw," said Fr. Ron. "He contacted me and said 'How'd you like to teach at Madonna?'"

Fr. Ron was a bit shocked when he found out that he would be teaching three philosophy classes and two business ethics classes weekly, and that each class lasted for three hours.

Fr. Frank Grispingo

"I thought, 'Wow! This is going to exhaust me,'" said Fr. Ron. "Remember, my high school classes were 45 minutes. Now, I consider 45 minutes warming up! But I said yes, and I never looked back with regret. Never."

His animated lectures on philosophy and ethics, sometimes presented from atop a desk, have echoed through the halls, often punctuated with an emphatic, "Ooh là là!"

Referring to his contribution at Madonna, Sr. Rose Marie Kujawa, said, "Fr. Ron has brought a deep understanding of the philosophical underpinnings of religion, in particular, of the Catholic faith. He is a teacher in the best sense of the word, full of enthusiasm for his teaching material as well as a burning love for his students whom he teaches with unmitigated energy."

Fr. DesRosier, who may be headed to his beloved Minnesota, said he is leaving Madonna because it's time for a change, for a new focus.

"I've been a teacher for the past 50 years; in fact, ever since I was ordained a priest in 1963. My new ministry will most probably be in a parish ... maybe even St. Louis King of France, 'the Little French Church,' our Marist parish in Saint Paul, Minnesota."

"The third member of the merry Marist trio"

Known for his dedication and quiet strength, Fr. Frank Grispingo's tenure with Madonna matches that of his collared colleagues. Throughout his 23 years as a part-time faculty member, he has brought the Bible to life for students.

"He, too, is a treasure of the Religious Studies department," said O'Dowd. "He teaches part-time, and a variety of very popular courses on the Bible, as well as shorter 1-2 credit classes on topics of particular appeal to Catholic students."

Sr. Rose Marie "Fr. Frank also has a thorough knowledge of the teachings of the Church and imparts them with quiet calm," said Sr. Rose Marie. "He is not disturbed by challenging questions, and never allows himself to deviate from the truth."

Susan Gentner, a 2012 graduate who studied Pastoral Ministry, said she appreciated how Fr. Frank shared his knowledge of the Old Testament in class.

"Fr. Grispingo created questions about the Old Testament that required the student to actually read it," said Gentner. "A struggling student could count on Father to develop a way to bring up the grade and was a wealth of knowledge when something was not quite understood."

Boston is the next stop in Fr. Grispingo's life journey, where he will minister at the Marist Lourdes Center, which is located in the neighborhood of Fenway Park.

The End of an Era

As Catholic priests, all three participated in the Madonna University community in a special way. Attendees at Daily Mass saw Fr. Frank, Fr. Sajdak and Fr. Ron as celebrants in the University Chapel every Monday, Thursday and Friday, respectively. Whether in class or in Mass, preaching or teaching, they have imparted their wisdom through homilies and humor.

"I don't know if the Marists only admit priest candidates with a deeply humorous outlook on life or if we just got lucky," said O'Dowd.

The simultaneous departure of these fine educators will leave large shoes to fill, but the positive impact each has had on the Madonna community will be felt for years to come.

"An Arts & Humanities faculty party without the Three Merry Marists would be unthinkable dull. In fact it's painful to anticipate future celebrations without them. Their departure will definitely mark the end of an era."

Sr. Rose Marie expressed her gratitude and offered each of them blessings. "We are deeply grateful for the services of Fr. Jack, Fr. Ron and Fr. Frank and realize it will be very difficult to find another, let alone three, who are as knowledgeable and self-giving as they have been during their tenure here at Madonna University. God bless you in this new chapter of your lives." •

Distinguished Professor

Dan McDougall, assistant professor and chair of Madonna's sign language studies department, has been named to a Distinguished Teaching Professorship endowed chair, for a special project in the College of Arts and Humanities. The project has been funded for two years by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

McDougall will use the distinguished professorship and grant to write a book about shadow interpreting for theater.

"Rather than interpret from off to one side of the stage, shadow interpreters are costumed and move on-stage among the cast while interpreting their lines into sign language," said McDougall, who with fellow Madonna alum Shelly Tocco, own Terp Theatre; a consulting group that specializes in the practice.

The process of researching the book and creating the accompanying videos will be done in collaboration with Madonna students from a variety of disciplines, including, sociology, broadcast and cinema arts, sign language studies and writing.

"It's our goal to use this project as an opportunity for students to expand their understanding of shadow interpreting as they gain experience conducting research, writing and editing.

Fire Science Award

Heather Casey, 2013 fire science graduate, pictured here with Paul J. DeNapoli, director of Madonna's Fire Science, Emergency Management & OSEH programs, received one of five $2,500 scholarships, at the Annual Michigan Safety Conference. She plans to work in the arson investigation field and will use the scholarship to pursue additional safety education.

Faculty Excellence Award

Graduating seniors chose biology professor Veronica Riha, as the faculty member who personifies the University's mission and foundational values, so as to create a lasting impression on the lives of his/her students.

"Whether it's in the campus pond, in the Rouge River, in Orchard Lake, or in Costa Rica, Veronica Riha is engaged with students, teaching them about the biology of environmental systems," said Ernest Nolan, provost and vice president for academic administration. "She has made such a positive impact on the way students think about the natural world and biology that the word 'transformative' comes readily to mind. She goes the extra ten miles to make sure that concepts and issues in biology are compelling and meaningful."

Sayers Honored for Living the Values

The Franciscan Values Award for Madonna staff was presented to Susan Sayers, secretary in the College of Science and Math. The award honors full- and part-time staff members who embody the University's mission and values.
