

ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR POSITION IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The College of Education of Madonna University (www.madonna.edu), in Michigan (between Detroit and Ann Arbor) invites application for a full-time position as an Assistant/Associate Professor of Educational Leadership. The College includes faculty who offer instruction in CAEP-accredited elementary and secondary teacher education programs, and advanced programs in Literacy Education, Educational Leadership, Special Education, Early Childhood, and Teacher Leadership.

Required qualifications include:

- An earned doctorate in either Educational Leadership, or a related field.
- A minimum of three years successful teaching experience in K-12 schools holding a valid teaching certificate.
- Teaching experience at the secondary level.
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to collaborate with colleagues.
- A willingness to travel off campus for teaching and supervision.
- Commitment to working in an environment that values diversity and collaboration.
- The ability to use technology for maintaining ongoing databases, and ability to conduct data analysis.

Preferred qualifications include:

- Teaching experience in higher education preferred. Administrative experience in K-12 or higher education.
- Experience with CAEP accreditation.
- Evidence of scholarship or scholarly potential pertaining to the teaching and learning of educational leadership.
- Experience with teacher evaluation.

Description of Responsibilities: Responsibilities will include leadership in a graduate Educational Leadership program, teaching undergraduate (foundations, secondary methods, educational technology) and graduate (Educational Leadership) courses (course teaching required both day and evening), academic advising and committee work, participation in grant research, teaching and assessment, and field and practicum supervision. Responsibilities also include the recruitment of new students, in collaboration with Director of Graduate Admissions, and the retention of returning students. Programmatic needs include expertise in education foundations and secondary education best practice, and strength in assessment and evaluation of programs: both teaching for equity and commitment to community involvement are highly valued.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience. Academic rank is dependent on qualifications. Review of applications will begin July 2019 and will continue until the position is filled. The position is available January 2020. Submit letter of application, curriculum vitae, and a list of three professional references with full contact information. No references will be contacted without the explicit permission of the candidate.

Dr. Stewart Wood (swood@madonna.edu)
College of Education
Madonna University
36600 Schoolcraft Road
Livonia, MI 48150

A Catholic institution founded by the Felician Sisters, and guided by the values of St. Francis. Candidates must be committed to excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service, and support the Mission of the University. We are an equal opportunity employer committed to a culturally diverse workforce. Candidates must be legally authorized to work in the United States. Verification of employment eligibility will be required at the time of hire. Thank you for your interest in employment opportunities at Madonna University.